From the Catechism

How can we not recognize Lazarus, the hungry beggar in the parable in the multitude of human beings without bread, a roof or a place to stay? How can we fail to hear Jesus: "As you did it not to one of the least of these, you did it not to me?"
Paragraph 2463

From the Saints

"The best remedy for dryness of spirit, is to picture ourselves as beggars in the presence of God and the Saints, and like a beggar, to go first to one saint, then to another, to ask a spiritual alms of them with the same earnestness as a poor fellow in the streets would ask an alms of us."
St Phillip Neri

Prayer before Mass

Almighty eternal God, behold I come to the Sacrament of your only Begotten Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ, as one sick to the physician of life, as one unclean to the fountain of mercy, as one blind to the light of eternal brightness, as one poor and needy to the Lord of heaven and earth. I ask, therefore, for the abundance of your immense generosity, that you may graciously cure my sickness, wash away my defilement, give light to my blindness, enrich my poverty, clothe my nakedness, so that I may worthily receive the bread of Angels, the King of kings and Lord of lords. Amen.
