Sunday Reading

Acts 14:21-27 "They gave an account of the church of all that God had done with them."

Psalm I WILL BLESS YOUR NAME FOR EVER O GOD MY KING

Apocalypse 21:1-5 God will wipe away all tears from my eyes..

John 13:31-35 I give a new commandment: love one another.

Today's gospel (John 13:31-35) follows on Jesus' prediction at the Last Supper that Judas will betray him. Jesus responds to Judas' departure on his betrayal with a cry of exaltation: 'Now the Son of Man has been glorified, and God has been glorified in him'. Judas' act of betrayal will trigger the events that will lead to the cross. In everyday understanding such an end to a human life would be the ultimate in shame and degradation. In the perspective of the Fourth Gospel, however, it represents the 'glorification' of Jesus – and the glorification of the Father whose will lies behind everything

The International Military Pilgrimage in Lourdes takes place from May the 16th to May 24th. HCPT Group 507 takes disabled and sick ex servicemen and women or dependents of those who have served. To receive more detailed information contact Brendan McWilliams by sending an email to brendan.mcwilliams@icloud.com.

This year we will be blessed by having our children make their first Holy Communion during the parish masses. This will take place on Saturday 15th June, 5.30pm at SPJ, on Sunday 16th June 9.15am at STAR and at the later time of 11.30am at CTK.

As there will be an especially large gathering at STAR with 14 children making their first holy communion, Fr Paul will also be celebrating a 6.00pm mass at STAR on the Sunday evening.

Would you like to pray for our parish through our email intercession group. It's very easy and not very demanding. A short list of parish intention will be sent out for you to pray about. You commit to pray every day, at home, in your own way. Our parish will be blessed by your prayers as we seek to become more committed in the work of mission and evangelisation. Remember everyone's prayers are powerful because God does the heavy lifting.
