Prayer before Mass

Almighty eternal God, behold I come to the Sacrament of your only Begotten Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ, as one sick to the physician of life, as one unclean to the fountain of mercy, as one blind to the light of eternal brightness, as one poor and needy to the Lord of heaven and earth. I ask, therefore, for the abundance of your immense generosity, that you may graciously cure my sickness, wash away my defilement, give light to my blindness, enrich my poverty, clothe my nakedness, so that I may worthily receive the bread of Angels, the King of kings and Lord of lords. Amen.

From the Parish Priest

Jesus gives us today a new commandment. He says “love one another as I have loved you.” We are not to love with a merely human love, but now with a divine love, in imitation of Christ, thus the commandment is new. The crucifix is our reminder of the new commandment, the depths of Christ’s love for us in his heart. Let us be sure that we carry around with us this reminder of how Christ loves us.

Fr. Andrew

Year of Mercy Talks at St Joan of Arc church in Farnham:-

Wednesday 27th April: 8.00-9.30pm in the Parish Centre: ‘Announcing God’s Mercy’ with John Vaughan-Neil, inspiring conference speaker and author, who will be sharing with us his insights into how we can respond to Pope Francis’ call to evangelise by sharing God’s mercy with other people.
Thursday 5th May: 8.00-9.00pm in St Joan’s Church: ‘Experiencing God’s mercy through Lectio Divina’ – Bishop Richard Moth will be speaking on the ancient method of prayerful reflection on the Word of God in Scripture.

From the Catechism...

Prayer, formed by the liturgical life, draws everything into the love by which we are loved in Christ and which enables us to respond to him by loving as he has loved us. Love is the source of prayer.
Para. 2658

From the Saints...

“Some believe faith alone is sufficient for salvation; others believe they will be saved by Christ’s sacraments alone; others rely on works of mercy alone and think they can sin with impunity. Such people fail to understand that nothing avails without love.”
St Thomas Aquinas
