Sunday Readings

1 Samuel:26 "The Lord put you in my power but I would not raise my hand."

Psalm; THE LORD IS COMPASSION AND LOVE

1 Corinthians 15:45-49 "We who have been modelled on the earthly man will be modelld on the heavenly man"

Luke 6:27-28 "Be compassionate as your Father is compassionate".

Today's gospel is a continuation of the teaching that began in last Sunday's gospel. These words from Jesus constitute the crux and the challenge of what it means to be a disciple: Love your enemies, turn the other cheek, give to those who ask, do unto others, lend without expecting repayment, judge not lest you be judged. Our Lords challenges those who would follow him to be more like God. God loves us beyond our expectations, beyond anything we can possibly imagine. In response to God's love, we are to love as God loves, beyond expectations and with a depth beyond imagining.

Retiring Collection This Week for Your Sanctuary – a charity dependant on the generosity of the local Community, supporting adults and children who have suffered or are suffering domestic abuse.

The meeting on the Protection of Minors in the Church takes place at the Vatican from 21st to 24th February. Cardinal Vincent Nicholls who is attending the meeting has written " I ask your prayers for the positive outcome of this meeting and for all survivors of such abuse who will find these days particularly difficult as so much public attention is given to this reality. The broad themes of the meeting are those of responsibility - knowing what is to be done; accountability - the ways in which we are responsible to each other; and transparency - the determination that there are no hiding places in these matters. These are the virtues, the qualities of our life together, that need to be renewed and strengthened. "
