From the Popes

"Things have a price and can be for sale, but people have a dignity that is priceless, and are worth far more than things." Pope Francis

From the Saints

"Let us not ask not to know any more than that there is a tomorrow about which we need not be unduly concerned. Let our concern, rather, be for the good we can do today." St Francis De Sales

Prayer before Mass

Almighty eternal God, behold I come to the Sacrament of your only Begotten Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ, as one sick to the physician of life, as one unclean to the fountain of mercy, as one blind to the light of eternal brightness, as one poor and needy to the Lord of heaven and earth. I ask, therefore, for the abundance of your immense generosity, that you may graciously cure my sickness, wash away my defilement, give light to my blindness, enrich my poverty, clothe my nakedness, so that I may worthily receive the bread of Angels, the King of kings and Lord of lords. Amen.

3. Use some of the ideas/materials on the A&B Diocesan site here: <http://www.dabnet.org/Resources/> Whatever we do, the goal of our Lenten Observance is to strengthen our Faith and so develop a closer relationship with God.
