From 'Divine Renovation' by Fr James Mallon

“In the Book of Acts by St Luke, once the narrative of the Lord’s Ascension is taken up, there is immediate discussion of the promise of God; “you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you.” The fulfilment of the promise is imminent, on the day of Pentecost. The cowering Apostles are transformed by a new Power that will lead to the Gospel being proclaimed to the ends of the earth...It is no surprise that churches that are healthy and growing facilitate and encourage their members not just to believe in the Holy Spirit, or just to receive the Spirit of God sacramentally, but to truly experience the Spirit of Power in their lives.”

From the Holy Father

His Holiness Pope Francis was deeply saddened to learn of the injury and tragic loss of life caused by the barbaric attack in Manchester, and he expresses his heartfelt solidarity with all those affected by this senseless act of violence. He commends the generous efforts of the emergency and security personnel, and offers the assurance of his prayers for the injured, and for all who have died. Mindful in a particular way of those children and young people who have lost their lives, and of their grieving families, Pope Francis invokes God’s blessings of peace, healing and strength upon the nation.

Prayer for Vocations to the Priesthood

“The harvest is rich, but the labourers are few”

Lord, grant to our Diocese the gift of priests filled with zeal for your Word, and with dedication in the service of your people, that your Church may be nourished through the Sacraments and strengthened for the Mission to which you have called us. For you are Lord for ever and ever. Amen
