JESUS SAID TO THEM,

“A prophet is not without honour
except in his own hometown, among his own relatives
and in his own household.”

Mark 6:4

WE ENCOUNTER JESUS - WE GROW TOGETHER IN HIS LOVE

Making disciples who encounter the saving love of Jesus Christ

Growing together by being known, loved and supported

Empowered by the Holy Spirit to worship, witness, and serve

This Sunday readings speak of the rejection of those who proclaim the Word of God. In the first reading Ezekiel's call came at a hard time, Jerusalem had been destroyed and he was among the people who were dispelled to Babylon. Ezekiel was being sent to a defiant and obstinate people and like Jeremiah he was warned from the start that he must be prepared to meet misunderstanding and rejection. Despite the harsh tone the message expresses God's fidelity.

Mark's Gospel portrays Jesus as suffering a similar fate to that of Ezekiel and the other Jewish prophets of old —rejection of him and his message. There is a deliberate slur on his name too as the people of his home town wonder about him aloud “the son of Mary”—in the world of ancient Israel peoples last names were formed from their father's last name, unless they were illegitimate, no one was ever referred to as the son of their mother. Jesus is profoundly affected by the way people react to him, mistrust here somehow disables him. His ministry amongst his own people is limited by their lack of trust and so he moves on and never returns to Nazareth again.

This passage unfolds a continuing theme of Mark's Gospel: Who is Jesus? His kinfolk in Nazareth might know the carpenter, the son of Mary, but they do not know Jesus, the Son of God. Mark is foreshadowing Jesus' rejection by his own people, the people of Israel. He is also reflecting on and trying to explain the situation of the community for which he wrote. While many of the first Christians were Jewish, Christianity took hold and flourished in the Gentile community. Mark's community was mostly a Gentile community, who may have been experiencing persecution. By showing that Jesus himself was rejected, Mark consoles and reassures his first disciples in the challenges that they will face.
